Come in...and be captivated...

Writers' Contest!

Contest 1- There are three objects a century old in a drawer of the antique writing desk you purchased: a key, a broken locket, and rusty-edged letter opener. In 500 words or less, create a scene that played out in the room which first held the desk a century ago and explain the items' relationship to one another.

Contest 2- Without looking, point to one location on a spherical globe. Write of one fictional adventure you have there which involves a native animal, a haunting and a famous travel quote. 1,000 word limit.

Contest 3- You, your mother-in-law and a capuchin monkey named "Albert" are standing on the ledge of an office building outside the fourteenth floor. Write a somewhat believable explanation for the fire and rescue. 1,000 word limit.

The contest deadline is September 1st. Please submit entries to contests@thewriteplaceatthewritetime.org

The First Place winner from each of the three challenges shall receive a $10 giftcard to Barnes & Noble bookstores and their stories will be featured here!
