A Testimony to Three Years~ The Scrapbook

"My favorite memory was simply finding you. I am honored to be part of your online journal. It is presented with class and style (panache), the writers are terrific and the devotion of your staff in creating opportunities, etc. are to be congratulated"~ Michelle Kennedy

"When I was selected to be featured in your great literary publication that features all whom have beautiful writing to contribute, I was very elated. In the writing business, it is very competitive, and new writers are working hard to have their names become known. The Write Place At The Write Time Literary Publication recognizes talent with writers entering the ever-changing, hard to break into literary career field. I believe with persistence, passion, and connecting with the right people, writing talent eventually comes to the forefront where it is supposed to be.

I will be forever grateful for your literary magazine for noticing a new writer who has greater opportunities of becoming discovered because your publication took the time to recognize new talent. We all have beginnings that allow us to grow and make our future as bright as we desire.

Happy Anniversary To A Much-Needed, Creative, Inspirational, And Great Publication! Wishing You Many Years Of Success"~ C. Michelle Olson

"To Nicole and friends,

Thank you so much for your support and encouragement. You have created a wise and important journal that speaks to the way we live today. Congratulations on two years! May THE WRITE PLACE AT THE WRITE TIME continue to grow, to endure, and to offer a place where creative artists of all kinds can thrive.

Thanks for being there."~ Christopher Woods

"I feel extremely honored to be a contributing writer for such a fine online magazine. Nicole, Denise, and staff exemplify the words talent, professionalism, and class. Great job and congratulations on your two-year anniversary!"~ Cheryl Sommese

"To begin a literary magazine is a major undertaking. To embark on a quality literary magazine takes even more determination. And to sustain a quality literary magazine requires ongoing dedication and passion. Nicole, you have succeeded at all of these.

My experience with you may partially explain why. To my submissions, suggestions, and information, you invariably respond promptly (a rarity for an editor), thoughtfully, enthusiastically, and generously. Never having met or even spoken, we have developed a warm relationship, which I cherish. These qualities of caring, consideration, and the highest standards are reflected in the magazine.

Your demand for excellence and constant search for more features to aid and provoke writers make the magazine fresh and original. And your creative adventurousness and aesthetic sense in publishing wonderful photographs and paintings that complement the texts set the magazine apart from others online today.

So, Nicole, at this two-year mark, I wish for you as much satisfaction and delight in continuing to produce the magazine as your audience has in visiting it"~ Noelle Sterne

"What a wonderful place to visit - you've created a beautiful magazine. You should be very proud of this accomplishment. I plan to visit and enjoy the words and art often"~ CJ Golden

"Impressive! The ink power of the contributors is big. Visual material is just beautiful. I AM captivated"~ Farida Samerkhanova

"Congratulations on attracting all this wonderful new talent and again I feel very blessed to be included amongst such gifted writers. The fall issue is a credit to your own talents and the energy and passion that you have put into the growth process of each issue. Thanks to you and Denise for all your hard work. You have created a real gem and it's getting more attractive as it ages"~ Pat Greene

"Your debut issue is really impressive. I'm pleased with the hard work you and your staff have done to create such an attractive venue for writers and artists"~ Vince Corvaia

"I think the questions were great and the piece looks wonderful. Thanks for thinking of me. All best wishes"~ Alice Hoffman, best-selling author of Here on Earth (an Oprah's Book Club Selection), Practical Magic (made into the feature film), The Ice Queen, Blackbird House, and The Red Garden [Autumn 2008 Interview]

"Thanks for the lively and insightful interview! The questions were delightful and fun to answer, and your web site a perfect dream for a writer"~ Carolyn See, author of Making a Literary Life, novelist, winner of the Robert Kirsch Body of Work Award, UCLA professor and Book Editor for the Washington Post [Winter 2008 Interview]

Jim Fuess

Jim Fuess has been an artist for 37 years. He has been in hundreds of group shows and more than 50 solo shows. His work has been in over 170 print and web literary sites over the past three years. Jim Fuess works with liquid acrylic paint on canvas. Most of his paintings are abstract, but there are recognizable forms and faces in a number of the abstract paintings. He is striving for grace and fluidity, movement and balance. He likes color and believes that beauty can be an artistic goal. There is whimsy, fear, energy, movement, fun and dread in his abstract paintings. A lot of his abstract paintings are anthropomorphic. The shapes seem familiar. The faces are real. The gestures and movements are recognizable.

Jim says."Painting is a joy for me. Something I can have fun with. Technically, my painting process involves liquid paints of different viscosities and squeeze bottles with a number of interchangeable nozzles of different apertures. The spontaneous effects created through the combination and recombination of these materials are fascinating to me".

More of his abstract paintings, both in color and black and white, may be seen at www.jimfuessart.com

Artist Statement

My works are vigorous, calligraphic expressions of my search and journey through for life's forces. They are created using a variety of materials: canvas, oil, thread, and panel, Plexiglas, plaster, wire, graphite, canvas and paper. Each material is explored keenly, to engage the viewer. The character of this attacking exploration of lines, colors and layered surfaces evoke this exploration of the many lines and layers of one's life journey

I have been producing images and exhibiting for nearly thirty years. It is my purpose as an artist. It has been enhanced by education, travel and experience. I graduated from the University of Northern Iowa with a BA in Art Education then worked at the White House Photo Lab in Washington DC to complete my military service. I completed a Masters Degree in Studio Art/ Printmaking from the University of Wisconsin, Madison in 1974. After a brief teaching career, I worked on a CETA grant at the Santa Barbara Museum of Art. Since then, for 28 years I worked as an International crewmember for American Airlines. There I experienced a wide array of arts and culture throughout the world. This position also afforded me the opportunity to pursue my art career on a part-time basis. Having recently retired from the Airlines, I can now devote my time exclusively to my art career and other artistic endeavors from my studio in the Velvet Mill in Stonington, CT.

Before moving to Mystic, CT, I lived in Los Angeles, CA and Northampton, MA where I had several one-man and group exhibitions at small independent galleries. Collectors of my work are from many cities in the USA and Europe.

My work can be viewed on my website: www.kensteinkamp.com.

I have also recently published a book entitled Street Lines in collaboration with the Cate Charles Gallery, Stonington, CT . To preview it, please go to <http://www.blurb.com/bookstore/detail/1754551>
