"Seagull" by C. Michelle Olson; <http://cmichelleolson.com/>

About this image: "My inspiration is capturing the beautiful world that we live in. But, specifically, since I live in California, the seagull seems to be representative of the beach life here. I feel like the freedom of seagulls enjoying the ocean and having the freedom to fly anywhere they want captures my attention every time. They make the beach more picturesque. They always are on the lookout for food and can be funny and creative when it comes to that search.

Freedom and the California lifestyle of letting go of burdens and focusing on gratitude for life's nourishing beauty are what inspired me here and always do." —CMO
